Thank you for contacting Scribd. We have processed your DMCA copyright infringement notification.

New Copyright/Abuse Reporting Service

We invite you to try Scribd's copyright/abuse reporting form. This form captures all the necessary information and immediately sends a legally-compliant notification to our Copyright, Abuse, and Privacy team. Bookmark <http://scribd.com/report> for future reference.

At the date stamped on this notice, Scribd disabled access to the document(s) at the following URL(s):

<http://www.scribd.com/doc/172380995/Nomads-2>
<http://www.scribd.com/doc/172380378/Nomads-1>

pursuant to the DMCA notification that we received on 01 October 2013.

Scribd complies as an Internet Service Provider with all applicable provisions of the United States Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) of 1998. Our policy is to respond to copyright infringement notifications that meet or exceed DMCA-mandated criteria for validity by expeditiously removing infringing material. In addition, we will terminate user accounts, when deemed appropriate, pursuant to our repeat infringer policy.

The documents listed above were added to Scribd's copyright management system automatically upon removal from the site. This system makes encoded digital "fingerprints" of the copyrighted works and stores them in a database that's inaccessible to the public. New uploads to the site are checked against encoded "fingerprints" in our copyright system. If there's a significant match the content is removed from Scribd. There are many factors that can affect the efficacy of Scribd's copyright protection system and Scribd makes no guarantee regarding the efficacy or consistency of the system.

RE: Subpoena pursuant to Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 512(h)

Dear Sir or Madam:

On behalf of our client Rangers International Football Club, plc, I respectfully request that the Clerk of the Court issue the attached subpoena to Scribd, Inc. pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA").

Section 512(h) of the DMCA provides that a "copyright owner or a person authorized to act on the owner's behalf may request the clerk of any United States district court to issue a subpoena to a service provider for identification of an alleged infringer . . ." 17 U.S.C. § 512(h)(1). Pursuant to Section 512(h)(2), a subpoena request must include:

- (1) a copy of a notification of claimed infringement described in Section 512(c)(3)(A) of the DMCA;
- (2) a proposed subpoena; and
- (3) a sworn declaration to the effect that the purpose for which the subpoena is sought is to obtain the identity of an alleged infringer and that such information will only be used for the purpose of protecting rights under Title 17 of the United States Code.

These documents are attached to this letter.

Thank you for your prompt response to this matter. If you have any questions, please contact me at 415-591-7052.

Very truly yours,

Simon J. Frankel
