Schiff & Associates Co., L.P.A.; record title of the Kurgis Registration is in Plaintiff Kevin F. Kurgis Co., L.P.A.. The Certificates of Registration are prima facie evidence of the validity of the registrations, the Plaintiffs' ownership of the Schiff Registration and the Kurgis Registration, respectively, and of the Plaintiffs' exclusive right to use the Schiff Registration and the Kurgis Registration, respectively, in commerce in connection with the goods and services specified in the Certificates of Registration under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b) and constructive notice of the Plaintiffs' claims of ownership under 15 U.S.C. § 1072. The Kurgis Registration identified in paragraph 3 is incontestable, which provides conclusive evidence of the validity of the registration, Plaintiff Kevin F. Kurgis Co., L.P.A.' ownership of the Kurgis Registration, and of the Plaintiff Kevin F. Kurgis Co., L.P.A.'s exclusive right to use the Kurgis Registration in commerce in connection with legal services, as specified in the Certificates of Registration under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b).

13. Substantial amounts of time, effort and money have been expended over those years in ensuring that the general public associates the Schiff Trademarks and Persona, and the Kurgis Trademarks and Persona, exclusively with Plaintiffs and their legal services.
14. The Schiff Trademarks and Persona, and the Kurgis Trademarks and Persona, when used in connection with the promotion of Plaintiffs' legal services and representation of injured persons in the State of Ohio have acquired substantial recognition by the public seeking legal services by virtue of Plaintiffs' providing legal services, their reputations in the community, their use and efforts to promote their respective trademarks and personae, and through Plaintiffs' vigilance in policing the use of the Schiff Trademarks and Persona and the Kurgis Trademarks and Persona.
15. The Schiff Trademarks and Persona and the Kurgis Trademarks and Persona have acquired an extraordinary degree of consumer recognition in the minds of the public seeking legal services, and serve uniquely to identify Plaintiffs' legal services.

Defendants' Wrongful Acts

16. ELM is a legal marketing firm founded by Defendant Bryant, and specializes in law firm SEO marketing and pay-per-click advertising. Upon information and belief, ELM has entered into contractual agreements with Ohio law firms for the purpose of marketing their client law firms' services through SEO marketing and pay-per-click advertising. According to its website, "SEO is an abbreviation for search engine optimization. Search engine optimization refers to digital marketing that is designed to get your law firm on the top of a search engine’s results page. For example, if someone searches for the term ‘personal injury lawyer’ in your city, you want to appear first on the results page. SEO is the way this is done.” ELM’s website goes on to explain the importance of prominent placement in search results: “Almost all potential customers now do digital research and less than 6% of them go to the second page of search results. For this reason, it’s crucial to your law firm’s success that you appear on the first page of search results.” Thus, for a fee, ELM is supposed to engage in activities to have its client personal injury law firms’ names appear near to the top of a Google search for “personal injury lawyer”.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendant Bryant is also the beneficial owner and operator of the website www.personalinjurycare.net, which promotes its client law firms via pay-per-click advertising. In the usual pay-per-click model, an injured person seeking an attorney in, for example, Columbus, Ohio, can enter the search phrase “personal injury lawyer Columbus Ohio” into Google, and several sponsored advertisements appear above the non-sponsored “organic” search results:

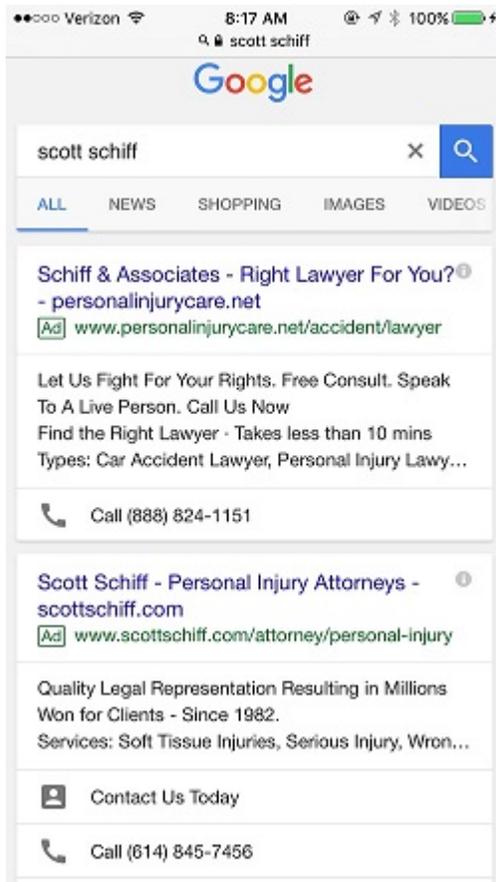

The person conducting the search can then click on one of the sponsored ads, which will direct the person to the firm who has paid for the sponsored ad. The firm pays Google each time the sponsored ad is clicked on.

18. However, rather than insure that Defendants' clients achieve prominent search result placement based upon their own reputations or ELM's marketing expertise in getting its pay-per-click site to appear when a consumer types in a general search such as "personal injury lawyer Columbus Ohio", upon information and belief Defendants have purchased the trademarks "Kevin Kurgis" and "Scott Schiff" as key words so that a Google search on Plaintiffs' names brings up ELM's www.personalinjurycare.net website in the all-important top position:

Defendants has even used the Schiff & Associates trademark as part of the heading for its sponsored ads.

19. As a result, the person who is actually searching for Plaintiffs' services may then click on Defendants' sponsored ad and be directed to a website where they will be given a telephone number to call. The person answering the call will determine where the caller is from, and then refer the caller to one of ELM's personal injury law firm clients in the caller's area. For Ohio callers, these firms are direct competitors of Plaintiffs.
20. Neither Defendants nor their client law firms have been licensed or authorized by Plaintiffs to use their names for any commercial purpose, including as a keyword.

First Cause of Action
Federal Trademark Infringement of the KEVIN KURGIS and SCHIFF & ASSOCIATES Trademarks

21. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 20 of the Complaint.
22. Defendants' aforementioned acts constitute trademark infringement in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.
23. The Kurgis Plaintiffs' federal registration on the Principal Register for KEVIN KURGIS, as identified in paragraph 5 is incontestable, which provides conclusive evidence of the validity of the registration, the Kurgis Plaintiffs' ownership of the KEVIN KURGIS Trademark, and of the Kurgis Plaintiffs' exclusive right to use the KEVIN KURGIS Trademark in commerce in connection with the goods and services specified in the Certificate of Registration under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. §1115(b)).
24. Defendants' knowing and willful commercial misuse of the KEVIN KURGIS and SCHIFF & ASSOCIATES Trademarks as keywords to enhance the search engine placement of its www.personalinjurycare.net website, and in the heading of its sponsored ads, is likely to cause confusion as to sponsorship or authorization by Plaintiffs. Defendants's actions constitute willful trademark infringement in violation of section 32(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

25. As a proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer great damage to their business, goodwill, reputation, profits and the strength of the KEVIN KURGIS and SCHIFF & ASSOCIATES Trademarks. The injury to Plaintiffs is and continues to be ongoing and irreparable. An award of monetary damages alone cannot fully compensate Plaintiffs for their injuries and Plaintiffs lack an adequate remedy at law.
26. Plaintiffs are entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants, as well as all other remedies available under the Lanham Act, including, but not limited to, compensatory damages; treble damages; disgorgement of profits; and costs and attorneys' fees.

Second Cause of Action
Federal Unfair Competition, False Designation of Origin, and Passing Off

27. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 26 of the Complaint.
28. Because of Defendants' efforts to lure potential clients to the www.personalinjurycare.net website by using the Schiff Trademarks and Persona and the Kurgis Trademarks and Persona, consumers who would be interested in engaging the legal services of the Kurgis Plaintiffs or the Schiff Plaintiffs for representation in a personal injury matter are falsely led to believe that they can contact the Kurgis Plaintiffs or the Schiff Plaintiffs by going to Defendants's www.personalinjurycare.net website, and into believing that the www.personalinjurycare.net website and persons who they speak with when calling the telephone number on the website are associated with, endorsed by or are sponsored, or otherwise approved by Plaintiffs, in violation of section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

29. The foregoing acts and conduct by Defendants constitutes false designation of origin, infringement of Plaintiffs' common law trademarks, unfair competition and passing off in connection with services provided in interstate commerce, in violation of section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).
30. Defendants' acts, as set forth above, have caused irreparable injury to Plaintiffs' goodwill and reputation. The injury to Plaintiffs is and continues to be ongoing and irreparable. An award of monetary damages alone cannot fully compensate Plaintiffs for their injuries and Plaintiffs lacks an adequate remedy at law.
31. Plaintiffs are entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants, as well as all other remedies available under the Lanham Act, including, but not limited to, compensatory damages; treble damages; disgorgement of profits; and costs and attorneys' fees.

Third Cause of Action
Violation of Right of Publicity Under O.R.C. Chapter 2741

32. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 31 of the Complaint.
33. Scott Schiff and Kevin Kurgis are living individuals and residents of the State of Ohio.
34. The Schiff Persona and the Kurgis Persona have commercial value and Defendants are improperly using the Schiff Persona and the Kurgis Persona for a commercial purpose by using the names "Kevin Kurgis" and "Scott Schiff" as keywords to promote their www.personalinjury.net website without authorization or consent.
35. Mr. Kurgis and Mr. Schiff are being injured by Defendants' improper commercial use of the Kurgis Persona and the Schiff Persona.

36. Mr. Kurgis and Mr. Schiff are entitled to a permanent injunction against Defendants and all other remedies attributable to the unauthorized use of the Kurgis Persona and the Schiff Persona for commercial purposes, actual or statutory damages, costs and attorneys' fees.

Fourth Cause of Action
Deceptive Trade Practices under Ohio Statutory and Common Law

37. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 36 of the Complaint.
38. Defendants' acts constitute deceptive trade practices by passing off and creating a likelihood of confusion, in violation of the Ohio Deceptive Trade Practices Act, O.R.C. § 4165.02 and Ohio common law. Plaintiffs are entitled to actual damages and attorneys' fees.
39. Defendants' acts greatly and irreparably damage Plaintiffs, and will continue to cause damage unless restrained by this Court. Plaintiffs are without an adequate remedy at law.

Fifth Cause of Action
Unfair Competition and Trademark Infringement under Ohio Common Law

40. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 39 of the Complaint.

(3) that Defendants account to Plaintiffs for all pay-per-click revenue, and any other revenue paid to or generated by Defendants, derived from consumers clicking on the www.personalinjurycare.net website based on a search using the key words "Kevin Kurgis" or "Scott Schiff" and further account to Plaintiffs for all successful referrals made to Defendants' law firm clients as a result;

(4) that Plaintiffs recover their actual damages sustained as a result of Defendants' wrongful actions;
