Nevyas v. Morgan	309 F. Supp. 2d 673 (E.D. Pa. 2004) 921 A.2d 8 (Penn. App. Ct. March 9, 2007) Nos. 1470 EDA 2012, 1715 EDA 2012 January 23, 2013	Doctor sued Lasik patient for gripe site on Lanham Act false advertising grounds.	Federal court dismissed for lack of standing. After the parties entered a settlement agreement, Nevyas believed Morgan violated the settlement agreement and sued for contempt. The court modified the injunction but didn't find contempt. The appellate court affirmed the district court.
Bosley Medical Institute, Inc. v. Kremer	403 F.3d 672 (9 th Cir. 2005) and 2007 WL 935708 (S.D. Cal. 2007)	Hair restoration doctor sued website griper for trademark infringement and cybersquatting.	Court dismissed the federal trademark infringement case but remanded the state trademark and ACPA claims. On remand, the district court denied the defense's dismissal/summary judgment motions. The parties subsequently settled in August 2007.
Barrett v. Rosenthal	146 P.3d 510 (Cal. Sup. Ct. 2006)	Doctor sued email list operator for defamation for republishing an email criticizing the doctor.	Case dismissed per 47 USC 230.
Gilbert v. Sykes	53 Cal. Rptr. 3d 752 (Cal. App. Ct. 2007)	Plastic surgeon sued patient for griping website.	Case dismissed per anti-SLAPP law.
Alvi Armani Medical, Inc. v. Hennessey	629 F. Supp. 2d 1302 (S.D. Fla. 2008)	Hair restoration doctor sued website for posting negative patient comments.	Court held 47 USC 230 didn't apply to claim for unfair trade practices but defamation claim dismissed; case settled in February 2009.
Biegel v. Norberg	San Francisco Superior Ct. case # CGC-08-472522 (filed Feb. 25, 2008)	Chiropractor sued patient over Yelp review. See http://www.citmedialaw.org/threats/biegel-v-norberg	Parties settled in early 2009; patient replaced the review with a statement.
Kim v. IAC/InterActive Corp.	2008 WL 3906427 (Cal. App. Ct. 2008)	Dentist sued patient and Ticketmaster/CitySearch for defamation over CitySearch review.	Case dismissed per anti-SLAPP law; defendants awarded attorney's fees of nearly $27k; but Dr. Kim declared bankruptcy.

Reit v. Yelp, Inc.	29 Misc.3d 713 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2010)	Dentist sued Yelp for defamation and unfair business practices.	Case dismissed per 47 USC 230 and other grounds.
Wong v. Jing	189 Cal. App. 4 th 1354 (Cal. App. Ct. 2010)	Dentist sued Yelp and a patient's family member over a negative review.	Case voluntarily dismissed against Yelp; case against review author partially dismissed on anti-SLAPP grounds; dentist ordered to pay over $80k in attorney's fees.
Foda v. Capital Health	2010 WL 2925382 (N.D. Cal. 2010)	A doctor asserted that anonymous posts (apparently written by a wife to describe her husband's experiences) to RateMDs.com were defamatory. The doctor sought a subpoena to RateMDs to identify the posters.	The court rejected the subpoena request because the posts didn't appear to be defamatory.
Rahbar v. Battoon	San Francisco Superior Ct. case # CGC-09-492145 (filed Sept. 2, 2009) case # CGC-10-502884 (filed August 20, 2010) case # CGC-11-515742 (filed Sept. 8, 2011)	Dentist sued patient for defamation and other claims over Yelp review. Initial complaint at http://www.scribd.com/doc/24291878/iiiiiiii-III-Iwiiiiiiiiiiii Background: http://www.usatoday.com/news/opinion/editorials/2010-06-09-editorial09_ST_N.htm Appellate ruling at www.courts.ca.gov/opinions/nonpub/A132294.DOC	Initial case dismissed on anti-SLAPP grounds; dentist ordered to pay $43k in attorney's fees (July 21, 2010). Second case dismissed as another SLAPP and dentist ordered to pay another $26k (July 12, 2011). Affirmed on appeal October 16, 2012.
McKee v. Laurion	Case # 69-DU-CV-10-1706 (Minn. Dist. Ct. Apr. 28, 2011) On appeal: A11-1154 (Minn. App. Ct. Jan. 23, 2012) Supreme Court opinion on January 30, 2013.	Doctor sued patient's son for defamation for critical online remarks. District court opinion: http://www.onpointnews.com/docs/Mckee-v-Laurion.pdf Appellate court reversed, saying that 6 of the statements were potentially facts instead of opinions and potentially injurious to reputation. Thus, the case can go to the jury on those statements. Appellate opinion (2012 WL 177371): http://www.mncourts.gov/opinions/coa/current/opa111154-012312.pdf Supreme Court opinion: http://www.mncourts.gov/opinions/sc/current/OPA111154-	Minnesota Supreme Court granted summary judgment to defendant on all 6 statements revived by appellate court.

Lynch v. Christie	2011 WL 3920154 (D. Me. Sept. 7, 2011) 2012 WL 2367375 (D. Me. June 21, 2012) 2012 WL 5874841 (D. Me. Nov. 20, 2012), http://pub.bna.com/eclr/11cv70_112012.pdf	Chiropractor sued former patient for Facebook and website postings.	The court denied the patient's anti-SLAPP motion because the judge concluded "that Lynch is highly likely to persuade a jury that Christie fabricated her story." In June 2012, the court granted Lynch an attachment on Christie's real property of $100k. In Nov. 2012, the court denied Christie's summary judgment motion.
