This matter came before the court upon the stipulation of the parties for the entry of judgment. The court enters this judgment based on the stipulation and consent of the parties, as indicated by their signatures below.

BACKGROUND

Defendant Hemi Group, LLC is a New Mexico limited liability corporation that was owned and managed by Kai Gachupin. Hemi Group, LLC did in the past own or operate a number of websites in the business of selling cigarettes and tobacco products to consumers via the Internet. Hemi Group, LLC's business included sales to consumers residing in the State of Illinois. Plaintiff alleges that Hemi has committed various violations of the Jenkins Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 375-378), the Prevention of Cigarette Sales to Minors Act (720 ILCS 678/1), has sold cigarettes to Illinois consumers which were acquired at a time when the cigarettes were not listed on the Illinois Directory of Compliant NPMs in violation of the Tobacco Products Manufacturers' Escrow Enforcement Act of 2003 (30 ILCS 167/1), and that Plaintiff is entitled to civil penalties and a statutory injunction under 720 ILCS 678/1 and 815 ILCS 505/1.
