CAUSE OF ACTION

8. Plaintiffs is suing the defendant for grand larceny in the dollar amount of 3.5 millions for properties who total net worth value was $450,000.00, which consist of The church libraries books of rare copies of books with 24 Karate gold trimmings and coverings, copies of ancient documents, furniture, silverwares, and more; relative Properties and more: but not limited to the plaintiffs property as well, placed in the storages of 218, 193, 157 and 366, at Storage America and was confiscated by Storage America in July 2012 because the plaintiffs own them rent for four storages in the dollar amount of about $6,000.00.

9. The defendants had knowledge, aforethought, as to the dollar value of the plaintiffs properties because Connecticut General Statute 47a-11b(d) require any landlord to do an inventory of the occupants' asset prior to disposing of it, when the occupants of the storages "allegedly abandons it and that the occupants storage and belongs can only be dispose, and or sold by the landlord base only on abandonment, Connecticut General Statute 47a-11b(a)." In the case of the plaintiffs they did not abandon their properties in the storages, which they occupied at the defendants storage company. There was payment made on the storages the month before July 10, 2012, prior to it being sold. And if there were any remaining properties of the plaintiffs left in the storages after allegedly auction, the defendants took that too.

12. Further, the plaintiffs are suing the company Ebay, the defendant, because they allow their company to be use for laundry of stolen properties by Storage America..

DAMAGES

13. Plaintiffs are suing the defendants for dollar amount of $4.5 million in punitive and Monetary damages stolen properties that was worth more then what was owed defendant, Storage America and the defendant Ebay for laundry the plaintiffs stolen properties.
