What additional documents you requested? If it is my id I have attached here & bill, if not what documents because I didn't get that email from you. I copy pasted what the other person said. And it does violate my trademarks because I didn't give you permission to use without my consent if I'm not managing it. I'm the rights owner and you see my id I attached you also was taking money from my credit card for ads and that wasn't a problem to do then now don't allow me or anyone else to log in, why?

Hi,

Thank you for your response. If you would like to proceed with your Page admin issue, please provide the additional documents requested in our previous email correspondence.

With respect to your trademark claim, based on the information you've provided, we do not see how the content you reported violates your intellectual property rights or other legal rights. Specifically, it is not clear to us that you are the rights owner or are otherwise authorized to submit this report on the rights owner's behalf. Please note that we can only process reports from a rights owner or someone authorized to report on their behalf (e.g., lawyer, agent).

If you believe that this content infringes your rights, please clarify your basis for claiming that the reported content violates your legal rights. If you believe someone else's rights may be infringed by content on the site, you may wish to contact them directly.

Thanks,

All I want is either someone can help me add to the page admin so I can manage it OR just remove it completely all my pages/timeline because if I can't edit update the pages I do not want them up at all and I also own trademarks for now care products this page: facebook.com/footpedicure and here is that info:

I would prefer to keep them, but all I was getting was ignored or copy paste info. If you send to another team who will respond and help please do that or if nothing can be done just remove all of my pages info because I don't want it up and don't give permission for that if I can't log in and manage. Let me know thank-you. Regards, Tami Harrison

Hi,

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention. Based on the information you have provided, it sounds like you are trying to make an intellectual property claim, which could result in the permanent removal of content from Facebook. If you wish, we can continue working with you to clarify the basis for your intellectual property claim.

However, it also appears that you are writing to us about a Page admin issue. A different team at Facebook might be able to help you with that issue. If you wish, we can forward your message to that team. Please note that if we do so, we will not act on your intellectual property claim while you are corresponding with that team.

Please clarify whether you would like to proceed with your intellectual property claim or whether you would like us to forward your message so that your Page admin issue can be looked at first. Either way, we'll be happy to follow up.

Thanks,

Orlando

Tracy Smith was a worker/contractor that no longer works for Now Care Products so I will not have that information. So if I can't log in and take care of the pages I rather them to be deleted or I will contact an attorney if you leave it up without us being able to log in. Why would we keep it up? Let me know what you are going to do. Thank-you.

Hi,

We can't help you with your request until we receive an ID or other document that we can use to confirm that you're the owner of this account. The document should include your name, photo and date of birth that matches the info on this profile.

Please visit the Help Center to learn about the types of IDs and documents we can use to confirm your identity:

<https://www.facebook.com/help/159096464162185/?ref=cr>

When you have your ID or documents ready, you can reply to this email with a scanned copy or photo of them. Please cover up any personal information we don't need to confirm your name (ex: credit card number, Social Security number). We'll just need to see your name, photo, and date of birth that matches the information on your profile.

Hi Tami,

Thank you for submitting your campaign for consideration on StartEngine. StartEngine has determined that we will not be moving forward with Seed Volage Tech at this time.

There are several objective criteria StartEngine evaluates in our green-light process, and ultimately each item needs to be met. Right now, we believe Seed Volage Tech should improve their social community size
