25 Plaintiff ("plaintiff") for her Complaint for Damages against 26 defendants MICHAEL R. ARNSTEIN ("Arnstein), an individual; AIRBNB, INC. ("Airbnb"), a 27
28

1 California corporation; and DOES 1 through 200, inclusive, and each of them (collectively 2 “defendants”), alleges as follows:

3
4 Parties, Jurisdiction and Venue

5 1. Plaintiff is and at all relevant times mentioned was an individual 6 residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. Plaintiff suffered severe, significant 7 and scarring injuries to her body and person while lawfully visiting the home of defendant
8 Arnstein, and being suddenly and without provocation attacked, mauled and bitten by defendant 9 Arnstein’s 72 pound German Pointer dog, said dog having a history of viciously attacking and 10 biting other residents living in the neighborhood of said defendant.

11 2. Defendant Michael Arnstein is and at all relevant times mentioned was an 12 individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California. Said defendant owned, 13 controlled, resided in, and rented out through and with the assistance of his joint venturer 14 defendant Airbnb the premises upon which defendant Arnstein housed a vicious 72 pound German 15 Pointer dog (along with a second dog of similar breed and size). Said vicious dog was unrestrained 16 and free roaming, and defendant Arnstein negligently permitted said dog to come in contact with 17 and attack and injure plaintiff herein, with knowledge of said dog’s history of attacking and biting 18 innocent neighbors. Defendant Arnstein’s German Pointer dog caused plaintiff’s injuries and 19 damages as alleged herein.

20 3. Defendant Airbnb, Inc. (“Airbnb”) is and at all relevant times mentioned was a 21 corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, and soliciting, 22 advertising and doing business as an American online marketplace and hospitality service 23 brokerage company in all of the counties of the State of California, including the County of Los 24 Angeles. The negligent conduct by commission and omission of defendant Airbnb caused the 25 damages suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein, and occurred upon the premises provided by 26 defendant Airbnb, which was owned by defendant Arnstein, Airbnb’s joint venturer/co-partner 27 herein, and controlled by both said defendants. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon 28

1 alleges that defendant Airbnb either knew or should have known that their joint venturer/co-partner
2 defendant Arnstein housed on the Airbnb-offered premises a vicious German Pointer dog with a 3 history of attacking and biting unsuspecting individuals and/or did nothing whatsoever to ascertain 4 that important safety related information.

5 4. The true names and capacities of defendants DOES 1 through 200, inclusive, are 6 presently unknown to plaintiff, who therefore sues said defendants by such fictitious names.
7 Plaintiff will seek leave of the Court to amend this Complaint to insert the true names and 8 capacities of said fictitiously named defendants when the same have been ascertained.

9 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the defendants 10 designated herein as Doe is contractually, negligently, carelessly, recklessly, wantonly, vicariously, 11 and otherwise tortiously, or legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings 12 hereinafter alleged, either through said defendants' conduct or through the conduct of its agents, 13 servants, consultants, joint venturers, and employees, and each of them, or in some other manner.

14 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all relevant times 15 herein mentioned, each of the defendants was the agent, representative, principal, servant, 16 employee, partner, alter ego, joint venturer, successor-in-interest, assistant, and/or consultant of 17 each and every remaining defendant, and as such, was at all times acting within the course, scope, 18 purpose and authority of said agency, partnership and/or employment, and with the express or 19 implied knowledge, permission, authority, approval, ratification and consent of the remaining 20 defendants, and each defendant as an agent, representative, principal, servant, employee, partner, 21 alter ego, joint venturer, successor-in-interest, assistant, and/or consultant.

22 7. This Court has personal jurisdiction over defendants herein, and venue is properly 23 placed, for the following reasons, among others:

24 7.1 Defendant Arnstein is and at all relevant times herein mentioned was a 25 resident in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.
26
27
28

1 7.2 Defendant Airbnb is and at all relevant times herein mentioned was a 2 California corporation doing business throughout the County of Los 3 Angeles, State of California.

4 7.3 The incident and injuries that are the subject of this action occurred in the 5 County of Los Angeles, State of California.

6

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

8 8. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference each and every 9 allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 7 inclusive of this Complaint as though fully set forth 10 verbatim herein.

11 9. Defendants Arnstein and Airbnb entered into a joint venture and commercial
12 enterprise agreement with one another establishing a community of interest in a common business
13 undertaking, including an understanding as to sharing of profits and losses, and a right to control;
14 to wit, an agreement whereby defendant Airbnb and/or defendant Arnstein would solicit, advertise,
15 offer and provide a residential rental unit to the public, for both defendants' profit, share and share
16 alike. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, said defendants entered into an ostensible
17 partnership and/or ostensible agency whereby said defendants by and through their conduct
18 induced a reasonable and prudent plaintiff, i.e., plaintiff herein, to believe that defendant Airbnb
19 was and is defendant Arnstein's joint venturer/co-partner for whose acts defendant Airbnb also 20 assumes responsibility.

21 10. On or about the afternoon of May 1, 2019, plaintiff arrived at defendant Arnstein's 22 large single family residence at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, Los Angeles County, 23 California to visit her friend who had rented a room from, by, and through, defendant Arnstein and 24 defendant Airbnb. It was the first day of plaintiff's residency for rent at the home and plaintiff was 25 invited in by her friend to visit and assist in unpacking and setting up her friend's residence in one 26 of the bedrooms therein. Parenthetically, plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that 27 defendant Arnstein and defendant Airbnb also rented out several of the other bedrooms in 28

1 defendant Arnstein's home, all at the same time, and defendant Arnstein himself resided in the 2 home with said renters, and with defendant Arnstein's over 72 pound German Pointer dog (along 3 with a second dog of similar breed and size), unrestrained and roaming free. Defendant Arnstein 4 had specific knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, 5 having recently viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with 'wanton and reckless,
6 indeed malicious disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam
7 free and unrestrained in the home along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
8 including plaintiff herein.

9 11. Immediately upon being invited into defendant Arnstein's home on May 1, 2019, 10 defendant Arnstein's over 72 pound German Pointer dog viciously and aggressively assaulted 11 plaintiff, without provocation, repeatedly snapping its teeth and jaws at plaintiff's face, attempting 12 to kill plaintiff, biting plaintiff deeply in the arm as plaintiff shielded herself to protect her face, 13 said dog causing serious bodily injury to plaintiff, including lacerations, profuse bleeding and 14 trauma. Plaintiff, to save her life, was required to physically defend against defendant Arnstein's 15 vicious German Pointer dog, with nothing but her vulnerable body of petite stature, suffering 16 lacerations and scarring to her body to protect her face, and her life, ultimately fleeing out the front 17 door to prevent further injury. Emergency 911 was called and the Los Angeles Fire Department 18 Paramedics Unit arrived and treated plaintiff, then referred her immediately to Cedars-19 Sinai Marina del Rey Hospital. There, plaintiff received follow-up medical care and medication to 20 heal and protect her wounds. As a result of the unprovoked attack upon plaintiff, plaintiff suffered 21 severe injury, including scarring, and severe emotional distress and anxiety, which continues to the 22 present day. As a further result of the attack, plaintiff was unable to continue at her employment; 23 and ultimately, due to plaintiff's employment being in the high-stress business of financial 24 marketplace sales, and stress management skills being required to perform her job effectively and 25 successfully, plaintiff was not able to continue at her place of employment.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 STRICT LIABILITY [DOG BITE]

3 CIVIL CODE §3342

4 (By Plaintiff

Against Defendant

5 Michael R. Arnstein and Does 1 Through 200)

6 12. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference each and every 7 allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 11 inclusive of this Complaint as though fully set 8 forth verbatim herein.

9 13. As alleged more fully herein above, and at all relevant times mentioned herein,
10 defendant Michael R. Arnstein was and is the owner of the over 72 pound German Pointer dog that 11 viciously and without provocation attacked plaintiff herein.

12 14. As further alleged more fully herein above, said attack upon plaintiff by defendant
13 Arnstein's German Pointer dog occurred at defendant Arnstein's premises, which he owns and 14 controls, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was 15 lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's premises.

16 15. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his 17 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb,
18 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other 19 Airbnb renters therein.

20 16. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific 21 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
22 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
23 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and 24 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees, 25 including plaintiff herein.

26 ///

27 ///

28

1 21. As alleged more fully herein above, and at all relevant times mentioned herein,
2 defendant Michael R. Arnstein was and is the owner of the over 72 pound German Pointer dog that
3 viciously and without provocation attacked plaintiff herein.

4 22. As further alleged more fully herein above, said attack upon plaintiff by defendant
5 Arnstein's German Pointer dog occurred at defendant Arnstein's premises, which he owns and 6 controls, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was 7 lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's premises.

8 23. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his
9 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb,
10 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other 11 Airbnb renters therein.

12 24. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific 13 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
14 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
15 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and 16 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
17 including plaintiff herein.

18 25. Defendant Arnstein owed a statutory duty to plaintiff to take such reasonable steps
19 as are necessary to remove any danger presented to plaintiff, and indeed other persons, from bites
20 by defendant Arnstein's animal; to wit, defendant Arnstein's over 72 pound German Pointer dog.
21 Defendant knew of said danger and with a willful, wonton and reckless, indeed malicious, 22 disregard of said knowledge, utterly failed to meet and fulfill his statutory obligation under 23 California Civil Code §3342.5. Defendant Arnstein is therefore strictly liable under said statutes 24 for the injuries caused to plaintiff as alleged herein above.

25 26. The aforesaid injuries as alleged herein above were occasioned by the intentional
26 misconduct, reckless, willful and malicious disregard, carelessness, and negligence of defendant
27 Arnstein herein without any negligence on the part of plaintiff contributing thereto.

1 31. As further alleged more fully herein above, said attack upon plaintiff by defendant
2 Arnstein's German Pointer dog occurred at defendant Arnstein's premises, which he owns and 3 controls, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was 4 lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's premises.

5 32. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his
6 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb,
7 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other
8 Airbnb renters therein.

9 33. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific
10 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
11 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
12 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and 13 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
14 including plaintiff herein.

15 34. Defendant Arnstein owed a statutory duty to plaintiff to take such reasonable steps
16 as are necessary to remove any danger presented to plaintiff, and indeed other persons, from bites
17 by defendant Arnstein's animal; to wit, defendant Arnstein's over 72 pound German Pointer dog.
18 Defendant knew of said danger and with a willful, wonton and reckless, indeed malicious, 19 disregard of said knowledge, utterly failed to meet and fulfill his statutory obligations under 20 California Civil Code §§3342 and 3342.5.

21 35. The attack upon plaintiff by defendant Arnstein's over 72 pound German Pointer 22 dog with a history of biting other persons, resulting in plaintiff's injuries as alleged herein above, is 23 specifically of a nature that California Civil Code §§3342 and 3342.5 were designed to prevent.

24 36. Plaintiff is among the class of persons for whose protection California Civil Code 25 §§3342 and 3342.5 were adopted by the California Legislature. Defendant Arnstein is therefore 26 liable for negligence per se under said statutes for the injuries caused to plaintiff as alleged herein 27 above.

1 37. The aforesaid injuries as alleged herein above were occasioned by the intentional
2 misconduct, reckless, willful and malicious disregard, carelessness, and negligence of defendant
3 Arnstein herein without any negligence on the part of plaintiff contributing thereto.

4 38. As a direct and proximate result of the intentional misconduct, omissions, reckless 5 and willful and malicious disregard, carelessness and negligence of defendant Arnstein, as alleged 6 herein, plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer, the physical and emotional damages alleged 7 herein above and incorporated by reference herein, and are entitled to general, special and 8 exemplary damages the amount of which have not yet been fully ascertained but will be proven at 9 the time of trial.

11 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 NEGLIGENCE [JOINT VENTURE]

13 (By Plaintiff against Defendants

14 Michael R. Arnstein, Airbnb, Inc. and Does 1 Through 200))

15 39. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference each and every 16 allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 38, inclusive, of this Complaint, as though fully set 17 forth verbatim herein.

18 40. As alleged more fully herein above, and at all relevant times mentioned herein,
19 defendant Michael R. Arnstein was and is the owner of the over 72 pound German Pointer dog that 20 viciously and without provocation attacked plaintiff herein.

21 41. As further alleged more fully herein above, said attack upon plaintiff by defendant
22 Arnstein's German Pointer dog occurred at defendant Arnstein's premises, which he owns and 23 which both defendant Arnstein and defendant Airbnb control, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del
24 Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's 25 premises.

26 ///

27 ///

28

1 42. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific
2 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
3 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
4 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and
5 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
6 including plaintiff herein.

7 43. Defendants Arnstein and Airbnb entered into a joint venture and commercial
8 enterprise agreement with one another establishing a community of interest in a common business
9 undertaking, including an understanding as to sharing of profits and losses, and a right to control;
10 to wit, an agreement whereby defendant Airbnb and/or defendant Arnstein would solicit, advertise,
11 offer and provide a residential rental unit to the public, for both defendants' profit, share and share
12 alike. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, said defendants entered into an ostensible
13 partnership and/or ostensible agency whereby said defendants by and through their conduct
14 induced a reasonable and prudent plaintiff, i.e., plaintiff herein, to believe that defendant Airbnb
15 was and is defendant Arnstein's joint venturer/co-partner for whose acts defendant Airbnb also 16 assumes responsibility.

17 44. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his 18 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb,
19 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other
20 Airbnb renters therein. Both defendants had a duty of care, statutory and otherwise, to keep said 21 premises safe from unreasonable risk and injury to persons, including vicious dog attacks as 22 occurred against plaintiff, as more fully alleged herein above.

23 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendant Airbnb either
24 knew or should have known that their joint venturer/co-partner defendant Arnstein housed on the 25 Airbnb-offered premises a vicious German Pointer dog with a history of attacking and biting 26 unsuspecting individuals and/or did nothing whatsoever to ascertain that important safety related 27 information.

28

1 operated, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was 2 lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's premises.

3 52. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific
4 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
5 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
6 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and
7 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
8 including plaintiff herein.

9 53. Defendants Arnstein and Airbnb entered into a joint venture and commercial 10 enterprise agreement with one another establishing a community of interest in a common business
11 undertaking, including an understanding as to sharing of profits and losses, and a right to control;
12 to wit, an agreement whereby defendant Airbnb and/or defendant Arnstein would solicit, advertise,
13 offer and provide a residential rental unit to the public, for both defendants' profit, share and share
14 alike. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, said defendants entered into an ostensible
15 partnership and/or ostensible agency whereby said defendants by and through their conduct
16 induced a reasonable and prudent plaintiff, i.e., plaintiff herein, to believe that defendant Airbnb
17 was and is defendant Arnstein's joint venturer/co-partner for whose acts defendant Airbnb also 18 assumes responsibility.

19 54. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his 20 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb,
21 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other
22 Airbnb renters therein. Both defendants had a duty of care, statutory and otherwise, to keep said 23 premises safe from unreasonable risk and injury to persons, including vicious dog attacks as 24 occurred against plaintiff, as more fully alleged herein above.

25 55. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendant Airbnb either
26 knew or should have known that their joint venturer/co-partner defendant Arnstein housed on the 27 Airbnb-offered premises a vicious German Pointer dog with a history of attacking and biting 28

1 61. As alleged more fully herein above, and at all relevant times mentioned herein,
2 defendant Michael R. Arnstein was and is the owner of the over 72 pound German Pointer dog that
3 viciously and without provocation attacked plaintiff herein.

4 62. As further alleged more fully herein above, said attack upon plaintiff by defendant
5 Arnstein's German Pointer dog occurred at defendant Arnstein's premises, which he owns, and 6 which at all relevant times herein both defendant Arnstein and defendant Airbnb controlled and 7 operated, at 812 Howard Street, Marina del Rey, County of Los Angeles, while plaintiff was 8 lawfully in and upon defendant's Arnstein's premises.

9 63. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein had specific
10 knowledge that his German Pointer dog was vicious and had a history of biting, having recently
11 viciously attacked and bitten a nearby neighbor; yet, with wanton and reckless, indeed malicious
12 disregard of said knowledge, defendant Arnstein allowed his vicious dog to roam free and 13 unrestrained in and upon his premises along with his several Airbnb renters, and their invitees,
14 including plaintiff herein.

15 64. Defendants Arnstein and Airbnb entered into a joint venture and commercial
16 enterprise agreement with one another establishing a community of interest in a common business
17 undertaking, including an understanding as to sharing of profits and losses, and a right to control;
18 to wit, an agreement whereby defendant Airbnb and/or defendant Arnstein would solicit, advertise,
19 offer and provide a residential rental unit to the public, for both defendants' profit, share and share
20 alike. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, said defendants entered into an ostensible
21 partnership and/or ostensible agency whereby said defendants by and through their conduct
22 induced a reasonable and prudent plaintiff, i.e., plaintiff herein, to believe that defendant Airbnb
23 was and is defendant Arnstein's joint venturer/co-partner for whose acts defendant Airbnb also 24 assumes responsibility.

25 65. As further alleged more fully herein above, defendant Arnstein rented out his 26 premises by, through, and with the assistance of his joint venturer/co-partner defendant Airbnb, 27 while defendant Arnstein was living in residence along with his German Pointer dogs, and other 28

1 Airbnb renters therein. Both defendants had a duty of care, statutory and otherwise, to keep said
2 premises safe from unreasonable risk and injury to persons, including vicious dog attacks as 3 occurred against plaintiff, as more fully alleged herein above.

4 66. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendant Airbnb either
5 knew or should have known that their joint venturer/co-partner defendant Arnstein housed on the 6 Airbnb-offered premises a vicious German Pointer dog with a history of attacking and biting
7 unsuspecting individuals and/or did nothing whatsoever to ascertain that important safety related 8 information.

9 67. Defendant Arnstein and defendant Airbnb willfully and/or maliciously failed to 10 guard or warn against the dangerous condition and activity existing on said premises as alleged 11 more fully herein above and incorporated herein.

12 68. As further alleged more fully herein above, the negligent conduct by commission 13 and omission of both defendants Airbnb and Arnstein caused the damages suffered by plaintiff as 14 alleged herein, and occurred upon the premises provided by defendant Airbnb, which was owned 15 by defendant Arnstein, Airbnb's joint venturer/co-partner herein, and controlled by both said 16 defendants.

17 69. The aforesaid injuries as alleged herein above were occasioned wholly and solely by 18 the reckless and willful disregard, carelessness, and negligence of both defendant Arnstein and 19 defendant Airbnb herein without any negligence on the part of plaintiff contributing thereto.

20 70. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct, omissions, reckless 21 and willful disregard, carelessness and negligence of defendant Arnstein and defendant Airbnb, as 22 alleged herein, plaintiff has suffered, and continues to suffer, the physical and emotional damages 23 alleged herein above and incorporated by reference herein, and are entitled to general, special and 24 exemplary damages the amount of which have not yet been fully ascertained but will be proven at 25 the time of trial.
