B. The Defendant(s)

Provide the information below for each defendant named in the complaint, whether the defendant is an individual, a government agency, an organization, or a corporation. For an individual defendant, include the person's job or title (if known). Attach additional pages if needed.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, federal courts may hear cases in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000. In that kind of case, called a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff. Explain how these jurisdictional requirements have been met.

A. The Plaintiff(s)

1. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) D. Bryce Davis, is a citizen of the State of (name) Mequon, Wisconsin.

2. If the plaintiff is a corporation

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

B. The Defendant(s)

1. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) Yahoo Corporate Office Headquarters HQ, is a citizen of the State of (name) Sunnyvale, California. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

2. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____,
and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

C. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

This is not a monetary request.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

On (date) 05/05/2020, at (place) Online Help Services, the defendant(s): (1) performed acts that a person of ordinary prudence in the same or similar circumstances would not have done; or (2) failed to perform acts that a person of ordinary prudence would have done under the same or similar circumstances because (describe the acts or failures to act and why they were negligent)

The Defendant failed to perform acts that a person of ordinary prudence would have done under the same or similar circumstance. The Plaintiff has good reason to believe that the described old/unused/recently confirmed hacked account (e.g. brycedavis333@yahoo.com) may be connected to the (preventable) Marines United Scandal, which grossly mirrors the Police Social Media Scandal that The Plainview Project relatively recently exposed. The Plaintiff is deeply concerned that individuals may have been harmed and wants to ensure that however many victims there are, receive the legitimate truth, justice, and closure that they all deserve.

The acts or omissions caused or contributed to the cause of the plaintiff's injuries by (explain)

...causing unnecessary distress to the Plaintiff due to inadequate responses to Plaintiff's genuine concerns regarding an old/unused/recently confirmed hacked email account (e.g. brycedavis333@yahoo.com). Although the Plaintiff initially thought the account was a Gmail account, and despite having not used it in years; however, Yahoo reportedly suffered a massive data breach and the Plaintiff suspects that another user may have been actively using the described account for years. Despite filing numerous reports to various agencies, the Plaintiff is still deeply concerned that some form of illegal activity may have occurred without the Plaintiff's knowledge.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

The Plaintiff is modestly requesting for the immediate release of any and all related and unredacted account activity, and information surrounding the Yahoo account "brycedavis333@yahoo.com." These documents include, but are not necessarily limited to, a complete and unredacted printout of the full history of the account's activity, photos, messaging, audio, law enforcement/government/military related reports/documents, legal reports/documents, all the contacts that submitted information to that account, all emails submitted to/from that account, and any other related material pertaining to the above mentioned email account. Once this information is wholly obtained, and all other related legal matters are resolved, then the Plaintiff will request for that account to immediately and permanently deleted.

V. Certification and Closing

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, by signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that this complaint: (1) is not being presented for an improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation; (2) is supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Rule 11.

A. For Parties Without an Attorney

I agree to provide the Clerk's Office with any changes to my address where case-related papers may be served. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's Office may result in the dismissal of my case.
