Our File No.: DC-VHG-JVQ

Dear Mr. Pichai:

Ms. Patricia L. Baker has requested that this office contact you with regard to her referenced Gmail account. We understand that this account has been disabled for alleged violation of your company policies.

Ms. Baker strongly denies any wrongdoing or violation of your company policies. She informs us that she has not been provided with any of the details surrounding this alleged violation (date and time of the alleged violation, specifics as to the nature and extent of the alleged violation, the IP address of the device from which the activity originated, etc.). As a result, she has been unable to properly address these allegations. This is manifestly unfair and unjust.

Furthermore, Ms. Baker is in need of the contents of that account, which is unavailable to her even if she no longer uses the account for communications. This is also unfair and unjust.

The foregoing premises considered, Ms. Baker requests that you:

- a. Provide her with the details of the alleged violation of your company policies including, but not limited to, date and time of the alleged violation, specifics as to the nature and extent of the alleged violation, and the IP address of the device from which the activity originated; and
- b. Provide her with access to the contents of her account so that she may migrate that information elsewhere.

Please direct your written response to this letter directly to Ms. Baker at the cc address below within ten (10) business days of the date hereof, with a courtesy copy to the undersigned as well. If you should fail to do so, Ms. Baker will consider any and all legal and administrative measures necessary and appropriate to resolve this situation.
