OPERĂ FOR CHARIHITY. The 9th opera season, which has been an active and successful one, closed last night with a grand and magnificent performance. The program was of a high order, and the artists who appeared were all highly praised. The opera was of a patriotic nature, and the music was of the highest order. The audience was most enthusiastic, and the applause was deafening.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY.

THE REAL ISSUE.

As far as I am concerned, I believe that the people who recognize the value of the presidential contest are the ones who will win. This is the same in all cases, and I believe that the people who will win are the ones who have the best ideas. In my opinion, the people who have the best ideas are the ones who will win. Therefore, I believe that the people who recognize the value of the presidential contest are the ones who will win. This is the same in all cases, and I believe that the people who will win are the ones who have the best ideas.

WILLIAM P. ORR, of Miami.

Read Senator Foraker's splendid

statement of his views on the

monetary system, or go to the unstable

stock market and speculate in

gold and silver. The nation will rise up and call George W.

Miller—They needn't to be. sir.

WILLIAM P. ORR, of Miami.

Read Senator Foraker's splendid

statement of his views on the

monetary system, or go to the unstable

stock market and speculate in

gold and silver. The nation will rise up and call George W.

Miller—They needn't to be. sir.