S I R S :

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff, by their attorneys JULES A. EPSTEIN, P.C., complaining of the Defendants respectfully sets forth and allege:

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

1. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Alliance Harm Recovery, LLC ("Alliance") was and is a domestic limited liability company with its principle place of business in Nassau County, New York.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendant Google Data, Inc. was and is a foreign corporation authorized to do business in the State of New York.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendant Google, Inc. was and is a foreign corporation authorized to do business in the State of New York.

4. Upon information and belief, Defendant Google Information, Inc. was and is a foreign corporation authorized to do business in the State of New York.

5. Defendants are hereafter collectively referred to as "Google" or "Defendant".

6. The Court has jurisdiction of this matter pursuant to CPLR 301 and 302.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

7. Plaintiff is the owner, or the agent for the owner, of certain personal, financial, business and medical records and information.

8. Upon information and belief, Google is the world's largest Internet search engine.

9. In or about February, 2014, Plaintiff's and its principal's proprietary and confidential business, financial, personal and medical data and information was inadvertently and unintentionally scanned into the Internet.

10. As a consequence thereof, volumes of sensitive and confidential business, financial, personal and health information owned by Plaintiff or its principal became available to the public on the Google website or through the Google search engine.

11. On March 6, 2014 and March 11, 2014 Plaintiff informed Google of the inadvertent and unintentional breach of Plaintiff's FTP's file server and demanded that Google block and/or remove such proprietary and confidential business, personal, financial and medical data from viewing public access and from the Internet.

12. Despite such written notice and demand, Google failed and refused to remove Plaintiff's confidential and proprietary information from public viewing and from the Internet.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations set forth above.

14. By virtue of the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to remove from the Internet and public viewing Plaintiff's proprietary, confidential, personal, business, medical and financial data located at Plaintiff's IP address and DNS entry as follows:

cpe-72-229-7-169.nyc.res.rr.com72.229.7.169

15. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations set forth above.

17. By virtue of Google's failure and refusal, despite Plaintiff's written demand and notice, to remove Plaintiff's confidential and proprietary content from the Internet, Plaintiff has been damaged in a sum to be determined by the Court but belief to be not less than $100,000.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment:

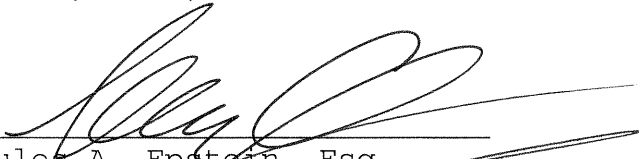

a. On the first cause of action, a permanent injunction and judgment ordering and directing Defendants to remove from the Internet and public viewing Plaintiff's confidential and proprietary business, financial, personal and medical content described as cpe-72-229-7-169.nyc.res.rr.com72.229.7.169.

b. On the second cause of action damages as determined by the Court but believed to be not less than $100,000.

c. The interest, costs and disbursements of the action.
